

LIST OF BIBLE BOOKS NOT CLOSED!

The Bible itself says that one day new revelation equal to scripture will be delivered to the world.

Jesus said that John the Baptist was Elijah and this was in fulfilment of the prophecy that Elijah would come and restore all things (Matthew 17:11-13).

Bible Christians believe that Malachi 1:2-4 states that the messenger will be sent to prepare the way for the Lord coming to the temple and the sacrifices of Judah and Jerusalem will once more please God and the sons of Levi will be purified that the Baptist is the messenger and his coming before Jesus in the first century was only a part fulfilment of this prophecy and the rest will be fulfilled later when the temple and the priesthood are restored. John restored nothing when he came the first time so that means that John who is Elijah will come again and give new revelation and he will restore the lost priesthood of Levi after the temple in Jerusalem is rebuilt. There is no support for the Catholic fantasy that new revelation will not happen until Jesus returns again to destroy the world and take his own to Heaven and leave the damned in Hell.

Revelation ends with a warning that anybody who adds any words to it or removes from it will be severely punished by God and lose salvation. Christians say that because this is the last chapter of the last book of the Bible that it proves that the canon is closed. This is wrong for first of all this does not make the chapter mean the whole Bible. The chapter says it means the prophecy Revelation makes. And there is the problem of whether Revelation really was the last book to be written. Nobody can be sure and you can't make a dogma out of something that is little more than an assumption. It wouldn't be fair on God. And the chapter is referring to unauthorised additions and subtractions from God. If God wanted to change the book that would be okay. So even if it could mean the whole Bible it does not eliminate the possibility that God will write further books. God has to issue new scripture some day.

A clever enough fraud could add to the Bible. He could make people think he is the Elijah.
